Parent Testimonials

- “As a parent, I am so grateful for the experience my daughter had as a Literacy Champion. My daughter attends school in the city and has very little exposure to other Native American students in a classroom setting. As a Literacy Champion, she not only had an opportunity to work alongside other amazingly, talented peers but she had chance to work with young learners...”

Parent Testimonials

- “I just want to say thank you to the Education Department for creating this opportunity for this group of youth. Was an overall great experience! What better way to teach the youth about finances. And a great big THANK YOU to you Davina, you did a great job organizing the task and work sites.”
